HBE UNDER 11 DIV2 vs St Ives Saints U11 DIV2
ROUND 14 - 04.08.2024
VENUE: Acron Oval

Summary of Game

Our second last game of the home-and-away season, the undefeated U11 Div2 team were red hot from the first bounce. Our midfield got to work with good pressure and clearances and our forwards finished with some nice goals.

The second quarter was dominant with some beautiful passages of play and goals galore. Wilbur managed to snap a kick under pressure from the boundary and get a right angle bounce for a goal that got everyone cheering. In the third quarter we were up by 60 points and had won the game, so we gave St Ives 3 players from our bench. This evened up the contest in the 3rd and 4th quarter but the tackling pressure remained high and St Ives played with great sportsmanship. Special mention to Milo for playing for St Ives in the 4th quarter and kicking two fantastic goals and setting up another.

Player of the Match went to Will and Aiden who both had amazing games, taking intercept marks, winning clearances, and kicking goals. Luke took out the courage award for his tackling pressure, hard running, and two excellent goals.

Player of the Match went to: Will & Aiden
