HBE U11 Blue Div3 vs Balgowlah Suns U11 Div 3
ROUND 12 – Sunday 21st July 2024
VENUE: Balgowlah Oval

Summary of Game

The Eagles took the field on what was a very windy Sunday at Balgowlah with confidence from their last game.

They started well playing into the strong breeze with some good tackling.

They trailed by around 3 goals heading into the 2nd qtr and scored on the stroke of half time.

A solid 3rd quarter had them within striking distance of their opponents by mid 4th quarter and the team were making good kicks, taking strong marks and increasing their tackling intensity.

A season high 4 goals to Nick was almost enough, but in the end Balgowlah got the result.

Not a win but the best all-around effort from the team for the season so far, and they will take the strong 2nd half momentum into next week.
